

Speaker Introduction

When opportunity knocks, our speaker greets her with open arms—and then gets the whole story

When told, “You can’t get there from here!”, she goes anyway and blazes the trail!

When warned, “No way! It won’t work!”, she creates new methods and new models.

And when bored with her old empire, she builds a new one, or at least adds another dimension.

The personification of word-of-mouth marketing, Wendy absolutely loves making money.

Armed with a B.S. in business management, she’s been the backbone of many a business.

Among other things,

She’s been a baker, a builder, a rebuildr...

A starter, a stater, a mainstayer...

A claimer, a reclamer, and a proclaimer.

Wife to George,

and servant, so she says, to Zertia (the cat),

our speaker is a certified scuba diver;

an OK but enthusiastic pianist;

a reluctant stationary biker;

an eager traveler;

and a fanatical reader.
